Guide For Lectors

Before your scheduled date:

- ◆ About one month before you are scheduled to lector you will receive a copy of the readings and a pronunciation guide.
- ◆ Practice Reading the Lessons
 - ◆ Practice the words and ALSO intonation and inflection so that when you lector you can
 - ◆ Tell as a story rather than just reading the words
 - ◆ Make eye contact with the congregation

ON SUNDAY MORNING

- ◆ BEFORE THE SERVICE
 - ◆ Go to the lectern—check to see that the book of lessons is turned to the correct page
- ◆ THE READINGS
 - ◆ Read from the book of lessons on the lectern rather than the celebrate insert
 - ◆ However, if needed you may copy and enlarge the lesson to ease reading
 - ◆ Adjust the microphone—the quieter your voice the closer the microphone needs to be to your mouth
 - ◆ Begin each reading with -- The 1st (2nd) reading is from
 - ◆ End each reading with --- The Word of The Lord

Helpful Hints

- ◆ Read Slowly and Clearly
- ◆ Use your finger to keep your spot so you can comfortable make eye contact with the congregation and return to the correct spot in the reading.
